(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Unezake et al., (JP 2002-357377 A). Unezake et al., disclose an air conditioner comprising existing refrigerant piping (4, 6) that was an existing air conditioner and contains residue of an existing of an refrigerant oil, a heat source unit (11, 28) and an user unit (29 evaporator) that are connected together by the existing refrigerant piping (4, 6) with a replace working refrigerant disposed therein; and an oil collecting device 9 that is configured such that after the existing refrigerant oil has been changed and before the refurbished air conditioner is run in a normal operating mode, the oil is collecting device 9 can draw in the replaced working refrigerant that is being circulated through the air conditioner and separate the existing refrigerant oil that is carried with the replaced working refrigerant, the replaced working refrigerant being an HFC refrigerant at least wt% of 32 See Fig.s 12, 13, 22-23, 25 and 27 and the translation. See also Para [0027] of machine translation.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 01/14/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argued that the requirements of amended claims 5 and 7 are not disclosed or suggested by Unezake et al. The Examiner disagrees. Unezake et al.' teach use of only HFC system refrigerat (see para 0008); Unezake also teaches the use of HFC system refrigerant how to mix oil See Para [0011]; Unezaki et al., also teach the use of only a single refrigerant like HFC or R32 for washing refrigerant piping. See Para [0072]. From the above teachings of Unezaki et al., it transpires that any kind of combination or non combination of refrigerant for washing purposes is possible.

Therefore, though it is not specifically disclosed by Unezaki et al., that HFC refrigerant containing 40 wt% of R32 for washing purposes Unezaki's system is capable of washing refrigerant system by using HFC refrigerant containing at least 40 wt% of R32 and as such the rejection is OK. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the /Mohammad M Ali/

Primary Examiner, Art Unit 3744 shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
